

Are the houses approved by municipalities and local authorities ?

Are log homes approved by municipalities and local authorities ?

Timber structures to SABS 082/2000 are accepted by all South African municipalities and local authorities. Like any other building, it has to comply to all regulations and approvals.